Explanation:

Estelle goalie is good on the bigger open maps ( ahten/oni ) but I really like her on taiko temple and clarion as well. Your gameplan is to basically keep the core away from your net for as long as possible because you can be stuffed very easily by a brawler (Juliette, X). For this reason I take strikeshot as I like the increased range to keep it in their end as well as the extra projectile I get to use to keep the core away. Range increases feel really good as you can get some cheeky goals if you have strikeshot and missile prop/aerials with your ult.
